

Job Shadowing Day at the Companies Registry (23 January 2008)

On 23 January 2008, the Companies Registry joined hand with the Junior Achievement Hong Kong to host a one-day Job Shadowing programme for 12 Sixth Form students from the Caritas Chong Yuet Ming Secondary School.

The Job Shadowing programme is an activity organised to expose young people to real business environment, to equip them for today's and tomorrow's job markets, and to encourage them to take an early start in planning for their future.

Office Tour

The Job Shadowing Day started with an opening remark by the Registry Manager. After a brief introduction to the work of the Companies Registry and a tour of different operational sections, the students were assigned to “work” separately in different sections under the guidance of six workplace mentors. The students were all excited about the office environment and the jobs assigned to them. They showed great enthusiasm in learning and performing their duties.

On the job...

The Registrar of Companies, Ms Ada Chung, spoke to the students.

The Job Shadowing Day ended with a debriefing session and certificate presentation ceremony at which the Registrar of Companies, Ms Ada Chung, encouraged the participants to consolidate their experience gained in the programme and start planning for their future.

The Registrar of Companies, Ms Ada Chung, presented the certificates to the students.

Through the one-day programme, students gained a better understanding of the work of the Companies Registry and valuable on-the-job experience.

Photo with the students

“The registration of a company involves the cooperation of many staff in different sections,” said one student at the debriefing session, “I am very impressed by the efficiency of their work.”