Every registered non-Hong Kong company and its officers must ensure timely delivery of statutory returns to the Registrar of Companies (the Registrar) for registration in strict compliance with the requirements of the Companies Ordinance (CO). If a registered non-Hong Kong company fails to comply with the requirements of the CO, the company, every responsible person of the company and every agent of the company who authorizes or permits the contravention are liable to prosecution and, if convicted, default fines.

You are advised to conduct free document index searches and, if required, searches on your company's particulars at the Companies Registry's Cyber Search Centre (www.icris.cr.gov.hk) or through our Company Search Mobile Service at www.mobile-cr.gov.hk to ascertain whether the company's public record is up-to-date and accurate. Please notify the Registrar immediately either by email to crenq@cr.gov.hk or by fax to (852) 2596 0585 if you note that the particulars of your company are incorrect or have been changed as a result of mistakes in any registered documents or unauthorised filing of documents with the Companies Registry.

The following table sets out the major statutory returns to be delivered by a registered non-Hong Kong company to the Companies Registry for registration after the registration of the company in Hong Kong. The list is not exhaustive.

Notes :

1. You can download specified forms at www.cr.gov.hk or purchase hard copies on the 14th floor, Queensway Government Offices, 66 Queensway, Hong Kong.
2. Before you deliver a document to the Companies Registry for registration, please refer to information pamphlet – “Delivery of Documents in Hard Copy Form to Companies Registry for Registration”.
3. Documents involving fees must be delivered with the correct fees to the Companies Registry. For details, please refer to information pamphlet “Price Guide to Main Services”.

Any document which is not accompanied by the correct fee payable for registration is considered unsatisfactory and the Registrar may refuse to accept or refuse to register the document. In the case of late delivery of annual returns, higher registration fees will be required.
4. If the charter, statutes or memorandum (including articles, if any) of the company or any other instruments defining the company's constitution is in a language other than English or Chinese, only a certified translation of the charter, statutes, memorandum or instruments in English or Chinese is required to accompany the Form NN5. For details on certified translation and certified copies of documents, please refer to sections 4 and 775 of the CO respectively.
5. If the supporting document is not the original, it must be certified in accordance with section 775 of the CO. If it is not in English or Chinese, it should be delivered together with a translation in either of these languages certified in accordance with section 4 of the CO. For details of the requirements on supporting documents, please refer to the Notes for Completion of Form NN10.
6. If default is made in delivering the form for registration, the maximum penalty is HK$10,000 for each breach together with a daily default fine of HK$300.
7. You can download information pamphlets at www.cr.gov.hk; obtain hard copies at the Companies Registry or by fax through the 24-hour enquiry hotline (IVRS) (852) 2234 9933.
