Important

This pamphlet is intended to provide a general guide. It should be read in conjunction with the provisions of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong) and should not be regarded as a substitute for reading it. You can purchase a hard copy of the Companies Ordinance from the Online Government Bookstore (www.bookstore.gov.hk) or call the Publications Sales Section of the Information Services Department at (852) 2537 1910. You can also read the full text of the Companies Ordinance at www.elegislation.gov.hk. Companies are advised to seek independent professional advice as they see fit.

1. When do I need to deliver an annual return to the Registrar of Companies (the Registrar) for registration ?

You must deliver an annual return in the specified form (Form NN3) to the Registrar for registration once in every year within 42 days after each anniversary of the date of registration of the company in Hong Kong (prescribed time period).

2. What is the consequence of failing to deliver an annual return for registration within the prescribed time period ?

If an annual return is not delivered within the prescribed time period for registration, a substantially higher registration fee is payable for the late delivery of annual return.

The company, every responsible person of the company and every agent of the company who authorizes or permits the contravention, are liable to prosecution and, if convicted, default fines. The maximum penalty is HK$50,000 for each breach and, in the case of a continuing offence, a daily default fine of HK$1,000.

3. What is higher registration fee ?

Higher registration fee ranging from HK$1,200 to HK$4,800 is levied in the case of late delivery of an annual return. The fee is calculated according to an escalating fee scale based on the date of delivery of the annual return to the Companies Registry. For details, please refer to the information pamphlet “Price Guide to Main Services”.

If an annual return is delivered by post, the annual return will not be regarded as having been delivered to the Registrar in satisfaction of the filing requirements if it has not been received by the Registrar. The annual registration fees payable will be calculated according to the date of re-delivery of the annual returns.

The Registrar has no power to waive the higher registration fees prescribed in the Companies (Fees) Regulation (Cap. 622K).

4. Will I receive reminder(s) for the delivery of annual return(s) to the Registrar for registration ?

No. It is the obligation of a company and its officers to comply with the requirements under the Companies Ordinance. You should make proper arrangements to deliver annual returns for registration within the prescribed time period.

An “Annual Return e-Reminder” service is available at the e-Registry (www.eregistry.gov.hk) for registered users to receive electronic notifications for the delivery of annual returns of registered non-Hong Kong companies on the most recent anniversary dates of registration of the companies. Please visit the “Compliance” section of our website at www.cr.gov.hk for details of the service.

5. What document(s) should I deliver ?

You should deliver for registration:

- a properly completed and signed annual return Form NN3; and
- where section 789 of the Companies Ordinance applies, a certified true copy of the company’s latest published accounts for a period of at least 12 months that comply with the law of the place of incorporation, or the law of any other jurisdiction where the company is registered as a company, or the rules of any stock exchange or similar regulatory bodies in that jurisdiction.

6. Where can I obtain the specified form of annual return ?

You can download the specified form (Form NN3) at www.cr.gov.hk or purchase a hard copy on the 14th floor of the Queensway Government Offices.

7. How can I deliver my annual return for registration ?

You can deliver the annual return (Form NN3) in hard copy form and relevant document together with the correct registration fee within the prescribed time period by post or in person to the Companies Registry at the 14th floor of the Queensway Government Offices.

You can also deliver the annual return and relevant document electronically through the e-Registry (www.eregistry.gov.hk). The e-Registry is a 24-hour electronic service portal developed by the Companies Registry to facilitate electronic submission of specified forms and documents. Key particulars of the company registered with the Registry as at the company's return date will be pre-filled in the annual return by the system for user's verification and completion of other details. Please visit www.eregistry.gov.hk for details of user registration and the full range of services provided at the e-Registry.

8. Do I need to deliver an annual return for registration if the information contained in the last return has not changed ?

Yes. Even if the information of a company contained in the last annual return registered with the Companies Registry has not changed, a registered non-Hong Kong company is still required to deliver an annual return in Form NN3 to the Registrar for registration every year.

9. Where can I ask for further information ?

For enquiries concerning this pamphlet, please call (852) 2867 4579.

A Check List for Delivering an Annual Return in Hard Copy Form for Registration

Before you deliver the annual return for registration, please ensure that you-

- Print the specified form in black ink and comply with the “Requirements for Documents Delivered in Hard Copy Form and Shareholders’ Lists Delivered in the Form of CD-ROM or DVD-ROM to the Registrar of Companies for Registration” with regard to layout, type size and colour of paper, etc. For further information, please refer to the information pamphlet “Delivery of Documents in Hard Copy Form to Companies Registry for Registration”.
- Use the correct bilingual specified form of annual return – Form NN3.
- Fill in all particulars and complete all items consistently in either Chinese or English with correct information as at the date of the annual return. Use traditional Chinese characters if the form is completed in Chinese.
- State correctly the company number, company name and particulars of the presenter. A covering letter is not required unless you need to draw our attention to a specific issue.
- Check if you have already notified the Registrar of changes in the company's particulars since the last annual return by delivering the relevant documents for registration. For instance, the change of address of the company should be reported in specified Form NN9 and changes in directors or company secretary or their particulars should be reported in specified Form NN6 or Form NN7. If you have not yet done so, please deliver the outstanding document(s) for registration as soon as possible.

You are advised to conduct free document index searches and, if required, searches on your company's particulars at the Companies Registry's Cyber Search Centre (www.icris.cr.gov.hk) or via the Company Search Mobile Service (www.mobile-cr.gov.hk) to ascertain whether the company's public record is up-to-date and accurate.

Please notify the Registrar immediately either by email to crenq@cr.gov.hk or by fax to (852) 2596 0585 if you note that the particulars of your company are incorrect or have been changed as a result of mistakes in any registered documents or unauthorised filing of documents with the Companies Registry.

- Arrange for the return to be manually signed by a director, the company secretary, manager or the authorized representative of the company (Note 1).
- Pay correct annual registration fee (Note 1).
- Deliver the annual return and certified true copies of the latest published accounts (if applicable) within the prescribed time period. The Registrar does not have power to extend the statutory time limit for the delivery of annual returns.

If the due date for delivering the annual return falls on a Saturday, the deadline for delivering the return will remain unchanged. You can deposit the annual return with a cheque in the Registry's drop-in box provided near the Information Counter on Deck Floor, High Block, Queensway Government Offices. A higher annual registration fee will be required if the annual return is delivered to the Registrar beyond the prescribed time period.

Notes :

1. Annual returns which are not properly signed or not accompanied by the correct fees will be considered as unsatisfactory documents and will be rejected by the Companies Registry. The documents will not be regarded as having been delivered to the Registrar in satisfaction of the provisions of the Companies Ordinance. The annual registration fees payable will be calculated according to the date of re-delivery of the annual returns. Higher registration fees are required for late delivery of annual returns.
2. You can download the information pamphlets at www.cr.gov.hk; obtain copies at the Registry or by fax through the 24-hour enquiry hotline (IVRS) (852) 2234 9933.
