INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Guideline on Imposition of Pecuniary Penalty (“this Guideline”) is issued by the Registrar of Companies (“the Registrar”) pursuant to section 53ZB(1) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance, Cap. 615 (“the AMLO”). This Guideline indicates the way in which the Registrar proposes to exercise the disciplinary power to impose a pecuniary penalty on a person granted a licence to carry on a trust or company service business in Hong Kong (“TCSP licensee”).
- 1.2 The Registrar may, among other disciplinary actions, impose a pecuniary penalty on a TCSP licensee under the following situations¹:
- the TCSP licensee contravenes a requirement on customer due diligence and record-keeping²;
 - the TCSP licensee contravenes a regulation made by the Registrar under the AMLO;
 - the TCSP licensee contravenes a condition of the licence;
 - a person becomes an ultimate owner, a partner or director of the TCSP licensee without the Registrar’s prior approval³;
 - the TCSP licensee fails to notify the Registrar of any change in the particulars previously provided to the Registrar in connection with a licensee’s application for the grant or renewal of a licence within 1 month beginning on the date on which the change takes place⁴; and
 - the TCSP licensee fails to notify the Registrar before the intended date of cessation of its intention to cease to carry on its trust or company service business in Hong Kong and the intended date of cessation⁵.

The Registrar will have regard to this Guideline in exercising the disciplinary power to impose a pecuniary penalty.
